

HE'S ENGAGED TO WED, BUT NOT TO THE GIRL WHO HAS HIM ARRESTED

Kaswan Is Decidedly Perturbed as to What His Fiancee Will Say.

The charge of dishonesty in woman caused the arrest of Joseph Kaswan, who peddles fruit in Pitt Street and adjacent thoroughfares. The charge is made by Miss Betty Fisher, of No. 61 Suffolk street, who says Joseph not only made her love him, but also disappeared with $150 of her money, which, she says, she gave him to buy furniture.

The money transaction was in April, 1914, Miss Fisher says, and she has been seeking Kaswan ever since. Yesterday she was visiting friends in Pitt Street and heard him crying pineapples and oranges for sale, as he sat on his peddler's wagon. She tried to speak to him, she says but he whipped the horse and got away.

A detective to whom she complained arrested Joseph at his home, No. 30 Stanton Street, at 6 o'clock this morning and took him to Police Headquarters.

"This is a shame," said the prison. "All my stock of perishable fruits will spoil. Besides, I am going to marry a daughter of a rich produce dealer on May 23. I have the license and invitations have been issued. I don't know what she'll have to say about my arrest."

It was suggested that she might release him from his engagement so that he could marry Miss Fisher.

"Marry Miss Fisher?" said he. "I'd rather go to war this morning."

He admits an acquaintance with Miss Fisher, but denies that he ever got money from her. He was sent for arraignment to the Essex Market Court.

Time to Think About A Parasol

Have you seen the picturesque "Yum-Yum" Parasol, the fad of the hour?

In every line from its stubbed end to the tips of its 10 gores as Oriental as was ever carried in the "Flowery Kingdom." Flat as the cyclomen's wide, many-veined leaves and as quaint as quaint can be.

The "Yum-Yum" in broad black and white stripes as illustrated, in gay flowered silks, in plain colors; one of the smartest of the season's many novelties; is specially priced at $2.89

Also at $2.89—the new shirred Parasol with corded edges, in navy, green, red, tan, and white, in black with flowered ribbon bands, in black and white stripes; Pongee Parasols, lined with green and scores of other appealing novelties to lead the final note of style to the summer costume.

The "Little Corporal" Parasol, in dainty pompadour patterned silks, with tiny beading emphasizing the lovely lines of its deeply curved arches, a strikingly effective canopy—$4.89 by pointed gores of black and white stripes are unusually attractive in a price are canopy topped Parasols with shirred gores and shirred edges, very curving in line and both pretty and practical as sunshades.

For conservative tastes there are lovely Meshine Parasols in every tone and color, fashionably trimmed with shirring, flutings, ruffles, gores and
